

PRIVACY POLICY

At Peak Music Society (PMS), we are committed to safeguarding the privacy of our website visitors; this policy sets out how we will treat your personal information.

What information do we collect?

We may collect, store and use the following kinds of personal information:

1. Information that you provide to us for the purpose of registering to receive our newsletters or requesting more information.
2. any other information that you choose to send to us

Cookies

Personal information submitted to us via this website will be used for the purposes specified in this privacy policy or in relevant parts of the website.

We may use your personal information to:

- Improve your browsing experience by personalising the website
- Send you general (non-marketing) commercial communications
- Send you email notifications, which you have specifically requested, including our newsletters and other marketing communications relating to our charity that we think may be of interest to you by post or, where you have specifically agreed to this, by email or similar technology

Disclosures

We may disclose information about you to any of our officers and trustees insofar as reasonably necessary for the purposes as set out in this privacy policy.

In addition, we may disclose your personal information:

- (a) to the extent that we are required to do so by law
- (b) in connection with any legal proceedings or prospective legal proceedings
- (c) to any person who we reasonably believe may apply to a court or other competent authority for disclosure of that personal information where, in our reasonable opinion, such court or authority would be reasonably likely to order disclosure of that personal information.

Except as provided in this privacy policy, we will not provide your information to third parties.

In addition, personal information that you submit for publication on the website will be published on the internet and may be available, via the internet, around the world. We cannot prevent the use or misuse of such information by others.

Security of your personal information

We will take reasonable technical and organisational precautions to prevent the loss, misuse or alteration of your personal information.

Peak Music

We will store all the personal information you provide on our secure (password- and firewall-protected) servers, which are not cloud based.

Your rights

You have the right to have your details removed from our database at ANY time. You may also instruct us to provide you with any personal information we hold about you.

Provision of such information will be subject to:

(a) the supply of appropriate evidence of your identity (for this purpose, we will usually accept a photocopy of your passport certified by a solicitor or bank plus an original copy of a utility bill showing your current address).

We may withhold such personal information to the extent permitted by law.

You may instruct us not to process your personal information for marketing purposes by email at any time. In practice, you will usually either expressly agree in advance to our use of your personal information for marketing purposes, or we will provide you with an opportunity to opt-out of the use of your personal information for marketing purposes.

Third party websites

The website contains links to other websites and online resources. We are not responsible for the privacy policies or practices of third party websites.

Data controller

The data controller responsible in respect of the information collected on this website is Adam Rae-Smith.

We may collect and store information about our members, including contact information: email, telephone and postal address, for future correspondence.

We will never divulge, sell or rent information to third parties.
